

Dr. Wanda Bolton-Davis

Wanda Bolton-Davis, a native of Champaign-Urbana Illinois, has resided in the Dallas area since 1983. She holds a bachelor's degree in Rehabilitation Science, and a master's degree in Social Work. As a social worker, Wanda worked in the field of adoption, where she impacted the lives of many families and children.

As God began to nudge her heart for ministry, Wanda enrolled and graduated from G. W. Truett Theological Seminary, with a Master of Divinity degree. She later received a Doctorate in Ministry from Talbot School of Theology, in LaMirada, CA.

For the past 25 years, Wanda has served in ministry, speaking and teaching across the country. In addition to her personal ministry, E3 Kingdom Leaders, LLC, Wanda has worked as a hospital Chaplain, and is currently an Adjunct Professor at the University of Texas in Arlington, TX. Wanda is the founder and Executive Director of Victorious Disciples Ministries, Inc., a 501 (c) 3 ministry that provides spiritual renewal through conferences and workshops.

Wanda has led a ministry team to Africa twice where they ministered to thousands. As a self-published author, her work has gone international, as churches throughout the United States, Bermuda, the U.K., Tanzania and Africa, have used her first publication entitled, Victorious Disciples, as a discipleship curriculum to disciple their people. Wanda is also the author of Victorious Living, a 30-Day Devotional Journal. She is currently working on her 3rd book entitled, Recommitting to the Great Commission, to be released in late 2020.

With a passion for discipleship, preaching, teaching and singing, the Lord continues to open many doors for Wanda both locally and abroad. Her daily prayer is, "Lord use me in thy service." Wanda has been blessed with three beautiful children, a wonderful son-in-love, one grandson and one on the way.
